When talking about your close reading:

- I noticed my book said...
- These details seem important because they show...
- These details connect back to...
- These details make me think that...

When listening to a partner about close reading:

- Show me that part.
- Read that part to me.
- Why do you think that?